	Grand Jury Européen	Tableau d'honneur 33ème au classement général et 4ème Pomerol.
